Project Objectives

- To create conditions for building a Creative Society on the whole planet by peaceful evolutionary means.
- To survey a significant number of people around the world whether they want to live in a Creative Society and how they envision it.
- To provide a platform for a global, international, open discussion of the concept and model of the Creative Society in all spheres of human life.
- To find new ways to unite the entire humanity and create conditions for the active participation of every person in the life of society, regardless of social status, religion, nationality, or political views.

Most Extensive Global Social Survey

For the past ten years, ALLATRA IPM volunteers have conducted public surveys and interviews all over the planet and asked both ordinary people and distinguished members of society whether they desired to live in a better world and what that world would look like to them.

Millions of interviews and answers were processed and analyzed. This work resulted in the creation of The 8 Foundations of a Creative Society, which are the pillars for the society that all people desire to live in.

8 Foundations of Creative Society

1. Human Life

Human life is the highest value. Life of any Human has to be protected as one's own. The goal of society is to ensure and guarantee the value of each Human's life. There is not and never can there be anything else more valuable than a Human's life. If one Human is valuable, then all People are valuable!

2. Human Freedom

Every human is born with the right to be a Human being. All People are born free and equal. Everyone has the right to choose. There can be no one and nothing on Earth superior to a Human, his freedom and rights. The implementation of Human rights and freedoms must not violate the rights and freedoms of others.

3. Human Safety

No one and nothing in society has the right to create threats to the life and freedom of a Human!
Every Human is guaranteed free provision of essential life necessities, including food, housing, medical care, education and full social security.
Scientific, industrial and technological activities of the society should be aimed exclusively at improving the quality of human life.
Guaranteed economic stability: no inflation and crises, stable and same prices around the world, a single monetary unit, and a fixed minimal taxation or no tax.
The security of Human and society from any kind of threats is ensured by the unified global service that deals with emergency situations.

4. Transparency and Openness of Information For All

Every Human has the right to receive reliable information about the movement and distribution of public funds. Each Human has access to information about the status of implementation of the society's decisions.
The mass media belong exclusively to the society and reflect information truthfully, openly, and honestly.

5. The Creative Ideology

Ideology should be aimed at popularizing the best human qualities and stopping everything that is directed against a Human. The main priority is the priority of humanity, high spiritual and moral aspirations of a Human, humanness, virtue, mutual respect and strengthening of friendship.
Creating conditions for the development and education of a Human with a capital "H", cultivating moral values in each person and society.
Prohibition of propaganda of violence, condemnation and denunciation of any form of division, aggression, and anti-humane manifestations.

6. Development of Personality

Every person in the Creative Society has the right to comprehensive development and personal fulfillment.
Education should be free and equally accessible to all. Creating conditions and expanding opportunities for a Human to implement his or her creative abilities and talents.

7. Justice and Equality

All natural resources belong to Humans and are fairly distributed among all people. Monopolization of resources and their irrational use is prohibited. These resources are fairly distributed among the citizens of the entire Earth.
A Human is guaranteed employment if he or she so desires. Pay for an identical position, specialty, or profession should be the same all over the world.
Everyone has the right to private property and income, however within the limits of the individual's capitalization amount set by the society.

8. Self-governing Society

The concept of "power" in the Creative Society is absent, since the responsibility for society as a whole, its development, living conditions and harmonious format, lies with each Human.
Everyone has the right to participate in the management of the affairs of the Creative society and in the adoption of laws that improve Human life.
The solution of socially important, socially significant, and economic issues that affect the quality of a Human's life is submitted for public discussion and voting (referendum).
